An acclaimed and widely travelled Indian Carnatic Vocalist, Smt Geetha Raja is a disciple of Sangita Kalanidhi Smt T. Brinda. As a representative of the Brinda school of music belonging to the Veena Dhanammal tradition, her singing is marked by a strong adherence to classicism.

Kalaimamani GEETHA RAJA has established herself as a well known vocalist in South Indian classical music for more than four decades. She is an accomplished musician with Master's degrees in Music and English.

MUSICAL EDUCATION

Geetha had her initial training in music from Sangita Kala Acharya Bombay Ramachandran and later was privileged to come under the tutelage of Sangita Kalanidhi T. Brinda from whom she imbibed a vast repertoire of classical compositions. She has also had specialised training under Sangita Kalanidhi, Padma Bhushan K.S. Narayanaswamy and Padmashri Kunnakudi Vaidyanathan. Her performances include a wide selection from the Krithis of Thyagaraja, Muthuswamy Dikshithar and Shyama Shastri, Tamil Krithis, padams, javalis, abhangs, bhajans and devaranamas.

EARLY LIFE

Born on 5 June 1955 in a family deeply interested in music and the arts, Geetha's musical instincts were nurtured by her parents – Smt Bhama and Shri V. Balakrishnan. Her marriage in 1973 to Shri S.K. Raja further strengthened her interest in music, as her parents-in-law, Smt Rajalakshmi and Shri R. Sethuraman supported her musical career. Geetha's husband Shri S.K. Raja has been a constant source of encouragement throughout her journey in music. Smt T. Brinda was a regular visitor to their home in Mumbai, where Geetha was introduced to the music of this great legend.

CONCERT EXPERIENCE

Geetha is an A Top Grade Artiste of All India Radio, Chennai and performs regularly on radio and television. She has been featured often in the National Programme and Akashvani Sangeet Sammelan of AIR. The highest civilian award in the state of Tamil Nadu, "Kalaimamani", was conferred on Geetha Raja in 2006; she received the "Asthana Vidushi" title from Sringeri Sharada Peetham in 2001.

Since 1980, Geetha has travelled extensively and presented concerts at important venues and festivals all over India and abroad. She has performed in Austria, Belgium, Canada, France, Russia, the U.K. and the U.S.A.

The “Voices of Women” festival in Belgium, the Nehru Centre in London, Radio France in Paris and the Indo Austrian Association in Vienna are a few of the well-known European centers where she was invited to perform.

In addition to presenting concerts in India and overseas, she has explained Indian Music through workshops and lecture demonstrations, to audiences in Europe and the USA.

Some of her prestigious appearances include performances at Smithsonian Institution's “Inspired by India” festival (2005); Cleveland Thyagaraja Aradhana (2005, 2012, 2017 and 2019); Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts – Washington DC (2006). Geetha has given a number of jugalbandi programmes with Hindustani vocalist Sandhya Kathavate, emphasizing the similarities and contrasts in the Carnatic and Hindustani styles of music.

She has presented concerts and interviews in private television channels, lent her voice to dance drama recordings and written articles on music in various journals.

She has trained in playing the Veena from Sangita Kalanidhi, Padma Bhushan K.S. Narayanaswamy. Critics have commented on her resonant voice, fidelity to sruti and clarity of diction.

Her performances include a wide selection from the Krithis of Thyagaraja, Muthuswamy Dikshithar and Shyama Shastri, Tamil Krithis, padams, javalis, abhangs, bhajans and devarnamas.

TEACHING

Geetha is actively involved in teaching carnatic and devotional music to advanced learners of music through classes and the internet. She firmly believes in the propagation of our rich musical heritage and engages herself wholeheartedly in this task. She has conducted special classes in padams and javalis under the auspices of the Music Academy, Chennai, from 2009 to 2011.

Some of her disciples have been awarded the prestigious CCRT (Centre for Cultural Resources and Training) Scholarships from the Govt. of India. In 2020 and 2021, Geetha has done a series of video recordings with her disciples, consisting of rare krithis of the Trinity, Padams and Javalis – a legacy from her Guru Smt.T. Brinda.

CASSETTES AND CDS

Geetha has sung for prominent recording companies – Swathi Soft, Sangeetha, HMV, Saregama, Amutham Music, Dreams Audio, Gitaa Cassettes and Kalavardhanis and released a number of cassettes and CDs.

Giri Trading Agency has brought out a double CD album in 2011 - entitled “Sri Bharati Tirtha Kavita Lahari” - Sanskrit compositions of the Sringeri Jagadguru, Sri Sharada Peetham, set to music by Sri Kunnakudi Vaidyanathan and rendered by Geetha Raja.
